This solicitation amendment 007 is raised for the following elements:

- Questions and answers

Questions and answers

Q30: Section 5 - Standard Procurement Clauses - whether PWGSC would clarify whether the Subsequent Contract resulting from the bid solicitation will include a limitation of liability of the Contractor for damages suffered by Canada and third parties (Subsection 5.N - Limitation of Liability). And if so, how much will it be?

R30: Section 5, which you mentioned, is not part of the clauses used for construction contracts. Please refer to Part 6, "Resulting Contract Clauses / Contract Documents" of the Tender Document

Q31: Protection in the event of a change in the Acts.

Is a change to the Laws resulting in an additional cost (eg environmental, fiscal, etc.) in the execution of the Contract subject to a change request from the Contractor And thus a request to change the price?

A31: There are no protections in the contract against these possible changes to the laws. This is a risk that the bidder must manage for this type of possible change.

Q32: Unless we are mistaken, neither the tender documents nor the SACCs define the terms and conditions of dispute settlement that may arise between Canada and the Contractor. Is it possible to specify?

R32: Please refer to Part 6, "Resulting Contract Clauses / Contract Documents" of the solicitation document, specifically GC8 - Dispute Resolution.

 All other terms and conditions of the original solicitation remain unchanged ***
