Questions and Answers

Question # 1:

Our question is, M1 requires the bidder to have delivered a minimum of 560 hours as a Facilitator, which is defined as “Facilitation of a learning activity or event includes planning, designing, organizing and delivering the event.”

Would the Crown consider teaching experience as a University Professor as meeting this requirement?

Answer # 1:

The facilitation can be done in a university setting, as it can be in the private or public sector, however it must be “facilitation” of learning activities or events in relation to leadership development and not “teaching”.

Therefore, the Canada School of Public Service will not consider teaching experience to achieve this criterion.
