Q13. During the site visit, the consultant showed us suggested fabrics on which the specifications were based. Is it possible for pricing and fairness issues, to require or recommend to all bidders to base their bid on these fabrics?

A13. The product displayed during the optional site visit was merely provided as an example of a product that meets the requirements of the specifications. It is not the only product that can meet the requirements of the specifications. Any products meeting the requirements of the drawings and specifications are acceptable.
