PART 1: Questions and Answers

Question 1 Would an Offeror be able to be awarded this Standing Offer if they do not have the appropriate security clearance at the time of standing offer award but are working on obtaining it?

Answer 1 Yes, an Offeror could be awarded a standing offer as a result of this solicitation without holding the security clearance required. The Offeror would have to work towards getting the clearance and could not be sent documents with a security classification of any kind to process until clearance for the location and the individuals has been obtained.
