

Question and Answer

Q1. The drawings do not indicate any concealed blocking for the handrails being installed on wall with drywall. Is concealed wood blocking required, along with the associated patching and painting?

A1. Yes. New handrail installation on any drywall surface will require concealed wood blocking along with associated patching and painting.