Solicitation Amendment No. 005 is raised to respond to a questions related to this Request for Standing Offer.

Questions and Answers

Q17. The Contract terms and conditions provided in the RFSO are suited to pure construction, but the RFSO indicates a requirement for professional services. Please confirm the terms to be used as it would appear the Higher Complexity Professional Services terms would be better suited for this Standing Offer.

R17. The Construction terms and conditions are more suited for this Request for Standing Offer (RFSO) as the Required Services described in A.3 of the Statement of Work are aimed at the implementation of remediation/risk management services and thus more related to construction services.

As per the response to Q6 in Amendment 002, "Designs (e.g. Specifications and Drawings) for the implementation of Remediation/Risk management services will be developed by an independent Consultant engaged separately from this solicitation process. This RFSO is for Offerors to perform the actual implementation of Remediation/Risk Management Services as outlined in Annex A, Statement of Work, of the RFSO."

ALL OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS REMAIN THE SAME
