This amendment 003 is raised to provide a response to a supplier enquiry as follows:

=====

Question: On item 2 the description on Annex A states : Connectors - N-Type (male) . Need confirmation that the cables are supplied with the connectors already installed. Need to know more details about theses connectors, what is the complete specification of these connectors , or do you have a part number and manufacture cage code for it ?

Response: Yes. N-Type male is the only specification.

=====

Question: Based on researching many suppliers, we are having difficulty getting accurate quote to what Canada wants in terms of Coaxial Cables and Coaxial Connect, as such, can you narrow the requirements to specific manufacturer, with part number, or better yet a drawing, or picture. If you can provide me with a picture to match it to the vendor's will be great.

Response: NSN for item 3 is provided below.

=====

Question: Can you provide the NSN is for item 3 (connectors)?

Response: NSN 5935-01-576-7156 can be used as a sample however, the specifications in Annex A take precedence.

=====

All clauses and conditions remain unchanged.
