Q4: Annex C contains an error in Paragraph 3.2.4. Slide Fastener. It states that "it must incorporate a double slider." Per the viewing sample that we inspected (see attached photo), the slider was not a double slider. To clarify if this is a typo in the Annex.

A4: There is no error in Paragraph 3.2.4. The requirement is for a double-slider. As per paragraph 2.5.1 of the Specification, the Specification takes precedence over the sample.

All other terms and conditions remain the same.
