#	Date Received	Question	Answer	Date Returned
1	12/06/2018	1. Can the bid be sent to you via email?	No, at this time PSPC does not accept any bids through email for competitive processes. In the case of this procurement, bids through e-post and facsimile will also not be accepted (Article 3.1). Bids will be required to be mailed or delivered to the bid receiving unit by date, time and place indicated on page 1 of the bid solicitation. In accordance with the standard instructions 2003 (2017-04-27) https://buyandsell.gc.ca/policy-and-guidelines/standard-acquisition-clauses-and-conditions-manual/1/2003/22 This is due to the nature of the requirements of the bid such as drawings, photographs, or technical data sheets which historically are un readable when sent by fax.	19/06/2018

2	12/06/2018	In the RFP under "Deliverables" it states that the training must be ready to be delivered by July 2018. We have approval from TC/USCG and approved facility and equipment but we would not be able to start the training until September of 2018 – is this ok?	Vendor must be able to deliver training 01 August 2018.	19/06/2018
3	12/06/2018	For accommodations – we do not have a residence and would have to price out accommodations at nearby hotel (approx. 5 mins drive) Would you want a price per person per room or is it ok to double up per room?	Each student must have their own room. Transportation to and from hotel must also be included.	19/06/2018
4	12/06/2018	Will you require a Transport Canada or USCG certificate for this course?	Students will require a Transport Canada or USCG certificate upon completion.	19/06/2018

All other terms and conditions of the solicitation remain the same.
