Amendment 005

This amendment is raised to publish questions and answers.

Q1. Monitor Arms are not listed on the Category 5 pricing table (page 15) but the furniture data sheets note to allow one dual monitor arm per station. Please confirm if they are to be priced.

A1. Please see amendment

Dual monitor, edge clamp mount

Monitor arms must have swivel rotation limiter with 180° stop to prevent interference with back panel and obstacles behind the arm.

Q2. Due to the lack of elevator, please confirm that all product for the 2nd floor will have to be carried up the stairs. If not, please advise what the intended delivery method will be?

A2. Correct, there is no elevator in the building – bidders to price delivery/install accordingly to suite building condition and determine best delivery method.

Q3. Please confirm if the building can accept a 53' Tractor Trailer delivering direct to site. If not, what size truck is acceptable?

A3. A 53' Tractor Trailer is Not acceptable. A 20' Tractor Trailer is acceptable.

Q4. Due to the lack of elevator, please confirm that all product for the 2nd floor will have to be carried up the stairs. If not, please advise what the intended delivery method will be?

A4. Correct, there is no elevator in the building – bidders to price delivery/install accordingly to suite building condition and determine best delivery method.

Q5. Category 1 & 2, table 1 (page 7), description of product "Panels powered below the work surface must be located in the kick plate". Please confirm.

A5. Due to an operational requirement no changes will be applied and the requirement will remain.

Q6. The document is contradictory as it relates to the Security Requirement. Can you please confirm if there is a security requirement or not for this bid, and confirm the specific security levels required?

A6. There is no Security Requirement on the Furniture contract.

Q7. Will a power port be acceptable for the above surface requirements?

A7. A power and data port is acceptable but all power panel must remain as requested by PSPC. Power above the work surface as requested must be available with white board or accessory rails as stated in the work space specification at Annex A from which SA Supplier have signed the Product Conformance Certification.
