- Answer questions submitted by Bidders

1. Questions and Answers

Question #021

Does the 40 page maximum include Point Rated Technical Criteria AND Mandatory Criteria? If not, is there a page limit for Mandatory criteria?

Answer #021

No; as stipulated, Bidders must describe the manner in which the Proposal satisfies the Point Rated Technical Criteria up to "40 pages maximum."

Regarding the Mandatory Criteria: "the Bidder must provide the necessary documentation to support compliance with this requirement"; there is therefore no page limit for the Mandatory Criteria.

Question #022

With respect to RT2, could the Crown define "horizontal issues"?

Answer #022

For the purpose of this Solicitation, "horizontal issues" refers to cross-jurisdictional issues that require the involvement of more than one organization, such as a department, agency or level of government.

Question #023

With respect to RT2, given the page limit and the extensive length of reports how does the Crown suggest bidders provide three (3) previous reports? Would project profiles detailing the experience for three (3) projects be sufficient?

Answer #023

Regarding RT2, it is stipulated that "the referenced reports will not be counted in the page maximum for this part of the Proposal" [the Point Rated Technical Criteria]. The minimum of three (3) previous reports will therefore not be counted towards the page limit.

In addition, "the Bidder may use links to direct evaluators to referenced reports."

Question #024

With respect to RT3 (second bullet) how would the Crown prefer to see our credentials in this area:

Ability to design, refine and recommend visuals and narratives and recommended options based on completed studies

Answer #024

There is no preference; as stipulated, the Bidder should provide evidence that demonstrates his or her "Ability to design, refine and recommend visuals and narratives and recommended options based on completed studies."
