AMENDMENT 001

The purpose of this amendment is to:

- a) response to bidder's questions;

A) RESPONSE TO BIDDER'S QUESTIONS:

Question 1: For the transportation of signs, my carrier is requesting the following information:

- a. Are these companies or construction sites?
- b. Can the delivery sites accommodate 53' trucks and are they equipped with unloading docks?

Answer 1:

- a. Both. A sign can be delivered either to a construction site or to the municipal offices/garages of a city or a transit agency, for example. The final delivery address is therefore variable and known only at the time that a request is made for the production of a new sign.
- b. Unfortunately, we cannot guarantee the conditions of the delivery sites. As the locations are variable and unknown to us at this time (they are known only upon the request of a new sign), we cannot confirm the accessibility of the delivery sites for trucks of different sizes. However, a 53' truck would likely be oversized for some sites. Moreover, construction sites and smaller municipalities likely won't have unloading docks.
