Solicitation Amendment 002 is issued to:

1. Respond to questions received during the solicitation period.

Question 1:

Whether companies from Outside USA can apply for this (like, from India or Canada)?

Answer 1:

Yes, companies outside of USA may submit a response to this Request for Information. If any solicitation is made in the future it will contain a security requirement which has not yet been determined.

Question 2:

Whether we need to come over there for meetings?

Answer 2:

One-on-one individual sessions will be held at Canada's discretion solely for the purpose of seeking clarification. If requested, one-on-one individual sessions may be held via video or teleconference.

Question 3:

Can companies perform the tasks (related to RFP) outside USA (like, from India or Canada)?

Answer 3:

Unfortunately, Canada is unable to respond to questions relating to any future solicitation at this time.

Question 4:

Can we submit the proposals via email?

Answer 4:

Respondents may submit their responses to the Request for Information via email, for additional information please see Section 9 Submission of Responses of the enclosed RFI.

Answer 5:

The purpose of this RFI is to identify potential solutions and gain insight into current industry capacity and capabilities regarding reservation systems to enhance the digital experience of visitors to Parks Canada places. Parks Canada Agency is seeking to explore the possibility of acquiring a next generation solution. See Canada's response to questions 1 & 2 of amendment 001.

Question 6:

Do you believe Canada is deriving value for money with the current platform?

Answer 6:

Yes, the current reservation system has served Canadians well.

Question 7:

Given the number of reservations the current system is handling what's the current cost for support per reservations?

Answer 7:

This information is not available.
