Solicitation Amendment 003

This amendment is being raised to provide responses to Requests for Clarification.

Requests for Clarification

- Q4. 3.2.3 Past Experience requests client references, when listing name address phone and fax of client contact. Please advise if an email address can be provided instead of a fax number. So many of the client references today do not use faxes, and no longer have faxes listed as contact information. Please advise.
- A4. Yes, an email address can be submitted in place of a fax number.
- Q5. Would it be possible to include a limitation of liability commensurate with the amounts set out in the insurance provisions?
- A5. The limitation of liability clause will remain as is.
- Q6. The Architect/Engineer has no ability to terminate the agreement, even if they are not paid. Would PSPC consider adding the ability for the Architect/Engineer to terminate the agreement in the event of an uncured material breach by PSPC?
- A6. The clauses regarding contract termination will remain as is.

All other terms and conditions of the solicitation remain the same.
