Q&A #1

Question #1

My question concerns the requirement: The course will be delivered in English, although instructors must be fully bilingual to facilitate French- speaking participants. Course materials including reading materials and handouts must be made available in French upon request.

Though this contract is very aligned with my interest and experience, I am not bilingual. I have bilingual colleagues also experienced in the field that I could co-facilitate with. Does that satisfy the requirement?

Answer #1
