QUESTION AND ANSWER SERIES 1

- Q1. Can Public Services and Procurement Canada (PSPC) confirm under which Stream enforcement interviews would fall under? Examples of an enforcement interview would include interviews by law enforcement, government agencies, or investigators.
- A1. Enforcement interviews would be categorized under Stream 1 of the Standing Offer.
- Q2. Can PSPC confirm if the values and proportions (rate of requests for Standard vs. Urgent delivery) selected at Section 4.1.3. "Financial Evaluation", are indicative of the expected level of effort required by the successful Bidder(s)?
- A2. The values included at Section 4.1.3. are for evaluation purposes only. They are not indicative of the expected level of effort. Successful bidders will be ranked based on the lowest price offered when being selected for the award of a Standing Offer.
- Q3. At the Basis of Payment at Annex B, can PSPC please clarify why a 24 hour turn-around is specified for Urgent Delivery pricing?
- A3. The reference to the 24-hour turn around period has been removed. The emphasis for Urgent Delivery is on the "under four (4) times the length of the recording (in hours)". Please see the solicitation amendment within. Bidders should use these updated tables to submit their pricing.
- Q4. Can PSPC confirm if it is acceptable to submit a sample with the security level designated as Protected B?
- A4. For this requirement, would it be suitable to submit a sample designated at the level of Protected B.
- Q5. Can PSPC confirm if all proposal documents (including samples of transcripts) can be submitted in Adobe Acrobat (pdf) format?
- A5. Please refer to Part 3 of the RFSO. If the Bidder is submitting a Hard Copy bid, they are also required to provide a duplicate Soft Copy (on USB or CD). PDF is a suitable format. In the event of a discrepancy, the Hard Copy will prevail, therefore if the Bidder is submitting a Hard Copy bid, they SHOULD NOT submit their samples (or other portions of their bid) in soft copy only.
- If a Bidder is submitting electronically through E-Post Connect, the system is capable of accepting PDF documents.
- Q6. Can PSPC confirm if it is acceptable to submit samples from the same client department, but from different events? The time, content and participants would differ between examples.
- A6. Yes, it would be acceptable to submit two different samples from the same client department.
