This amendment has been raised to answer the following questions:

Q1: Please provide an electronic base map for planning of distribution of staff.

A1: There will be a map provided at the site visit.

Q2: Annex B – Cleaning Schedule – Please indicate if there are any specific days on which less than 7 days/week tasks are to be performed.

A2: The only buildings that are not scheduled to be cleaned on the weekends are the PMQ's and Cadet buildings. BB's 42, 43 and 44 have some weekend cleaning and possibly checkouts on weekends.

Q3: In question P2, please confirm that the highest level of education is based on a recognized accredited Canadian diploma or degree or required to meet the equivalency recognition guidelines instated by the Federal government for Secondary Schools, Universities and/or Colleges.

A3: Proof of diploma and or degree is mandatory.

Q4: Under the current contract there was a 30% increase to minimum wage mandated by the provincial government. How was this financially supported by the Federal government under the contract at that time?

A4: There is no section in the G&S General Conditions or Supplemental General Conditions that covers an increase to minimum wages, increase to pricing due to minimum wage increase or payment of wages. The public notice announcement by the Alberta Government to increase the minimum wage including the breakdown and timeline for the increases was published and broadcasted in June 2015, any bids submitted by suppliers after that date should have reasonably taken this into consideration as there was demonstrated public notice. Please bid accordingly.

Q5: In past RFPs, the CIMS-GB certification through ISSA was considered equivalent to ISO9000? Please confirm that the scoring will be adjusted in Questions P4, P10, and P12 to reflect the equivalency of the certifications. See attached document confirming the equivalency

A5: P4 is CIMS certified, P10 is CIMS and P12 is ISO 9000 points will be give accordingly, bidders have the opportunity to get points for whichever certification they hold.

Q6: If there are further changes by the federal or provincial government that effects minimum wage or payroll tax changes that increase the labour burden how will this be supported by the Federal Government under this contract.

A6: There is no section in the G&S General Conditions or Supplemental General Conditions that covers an increase to minimum wages, increase to pricing due to minimum wage increase or payment of wages. The public notice announcement by the Alberta Government to increase the minimum wage including the breakdown and timeline for the increases was published and broadcasted in June 2015, any bids submitted by suppliers after that date should have reasonably taken this into consideration as there was demonstrated public notice. Please bid accordingly.

Q7: How will joint ventures with shared ownership that submit multiple bids be evaluated?

A7: Joint ventures must submit their bid in accordance with Article 17 (2010-01-11) Joint venture of the standard instructions 2003 Goods or Services – Competitive Requirements.

All other terms and conditions remain the same.
