AMENDMENT NO. 002

This amendment is raised to answer bidders' questions.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Question 1:

If there is no incumbent who worked on any related task to the above reference RFP?

Answer 1:

Although Transport Canada contracts for many different types of informatics professional services there are no incumbents working on these tasks as this is a new requirement.

Question 2:

Could you please confirm if there are any incumbents in any of these roles and, if so, what are the terms and value and vendor(s) holding said contract(s)?

Answer 2:

Please refer to Answer 1.

Question 3:

Due to the complexity the requirement, obtaining and confirming references, and presenting all information in the specified format requested by the client for multiple workstreams, we respectfully request a two week extension to the submittal date to May 1, 2019.

Answer 3:

Canada granted a two week extension to May 1, 2019.

Question 4:

Please refer to MTC 1 which states that "the Bidder must demonstrate that it has provided informatics professional services in the past seven years as of bid closing date as follows: 1. Each contract identified must... b) have an initial minimum value of $2,000,000.00 (CDN) excluding applicable taxes, not including amendments". It has been the Bidder's experience that multi-year contracts often go through several iterations due to expanded/change of scope of work (added Task Authorizations), exercising option periods (which changes the value and duration of the contract), change in contract authority, etc. that are done by means of contract amendments. Additionally, contracts that exercise option periods are indicative of performing the services to the Crown's complete satisfaction and providing continuity of service. Would the Crown please consider modifying requirement 1.b) to "have a minimum value of $2,000,000.00 (CDN) excluding applicable taxes"?

Answer 4:

Your request was considered but the requirement remains unchanged.
