

AMENDMENT 004

The objective of Amendment 004 is to bring the following changes/additions to the Request for Standing Offer (RSO):

A. Questions and Answers 25 to 28

---

A. Questions and Answers

Question #25

In Part 2.2, Submission of Offers:

- a) If the total size of the document attachments required to satisfy the M and R criteria exceeds 15 MB, is it allowable to provide the documents by means of an FTP site?
- b) If not, may they be submitted via email(s) separate from the email containing the technical and financial offers and certification?

RESPONSE:

- a) The preference is b)
- b) Yes, you can separate from the email containing the technical and financial offer but insert a reference in the email's subject line to show me that they are related.

Question #26

In Part 4.1.4 Table B, as revised in Amendment 3, the second sentence above the table is unclear regarding whether or not the information in Table B will be included in the evaluation of price process. Can you please clarify whether it "will be included" or "will not be included"?

RESPONSE: No, Table B will not be included as part of the financial evaluation.

Question #27

Here is one more question- Page 38 of 44: We believe pool pumps and pool heaters would fall into the any other relevant product bin in the Appliances product category. Does NRCan agree? If not, can NRCan please elaborate on the meaning of any other relevant product?

RESPONSE:

No, NRCan does not agree. Pool pumps are classified under the Industrial category and the Pool heater is classified under the Heating, Ventilation and Air Conditioning Equipment category.

Question #28

For requirements M3 and R6, are French reports acceptable?

RESPONSE:

Yes

ALL OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS REMAIN UNCHANGED