The first week consists of a DND self-instructed refresher training which will allow up to 6 CAF MP Staff to prepare to train the trainees on CP PDT. The remaining 4 weeks of the CP PDT is to train a minimum of 8 up to a maximum of 16 trainees using 6 CAF MP Staff.

The Final Training Exercise (FTX) is run by CAF instructors and is a 4 day exercise at the end of the CPOC and CP PDT training. The purpose of the exercise is to confirm the abilities of the trainees in both the operator and Team Leader roles. This consists of the planning and execution of a VIP escort to several high profile events in and around the local area of the Contractor' facilities. The FTX is structured into 2 days executive black phase (off site in local area) moving into 2 days of high threat green phase. The green phase will be conducted at the Contractor's facility and include the use of ranges, scenario vehicles, role players and equipment. All costs incurred off-site in support of the FTX will be paid directly by DND and these costs are outside the scope of the contract.

Only trainees that have successfully completed the CPOC or CP PDT training will move forward to the driving training.
