This first (001) amendment to the RFI is raised to answer questions from the Industry.

Q1: Can companies from Outside Canada apply for this?

A1: This is a Request for Information (RFI) only, so any company may respond. It should be noted that the services described within this RFI would be performed on behalf of the Government of Canada and as such all data within the scope of this service must remain within Canada. It is expected that all data will be transmitted using the Payments Canada network which only operates within Canada.

Q2: Do we need to come over to Ottawa/Gatineau for the one on one meetings?

A2: It is not a requirement to attend meetings in person, alternative methods of group communication are acceptable provided the proper arrangements can be made.

Q3: Can we perform the tasks (related to RFP) outside Canada?

A3: All processes described in this RFI must be performed in Canada, please refer to the Response for Question #1.

Q4: Can we submit the proposals via email?

A4: Response: Yes, for the RFI, email is the only method available to submit written responses. The email address can be found under the Contact Information on the Tender Notice.
