AMENDMENT 011

This Request for Standing Offer (RFSO) amendment (011) is raised to (1) provide clarifications sought by Industry, (2) update and release a revised version of Annex F – Microsoft Excel® Workbook on the web site buyandsell.gc.ca and (3) extend the closing date to this RFSO by an additional 7 calendar days.

1. Questions and Answers:

Question 26: Canada has been notified by Industry that there is some problems on the workbook, especially when Industry entering prices and lead times for the consumables.

- a) Do Industry have to fill out the price breaks even though my minimum order QTY is higher? As for an example, if we have a minimum order quantity over 59, do we have to enter prices for quantity 1-59 EA Column?
- b) When we do not enter prices in columns J+K at the summary it shows an error. The same error happens when not entering Lead times in columns N+O. When entering prices in Columns J+K, the mistake does not appear. Can Canada advice Industry about the way to proceed?

Clarification 26:

- a) Industry doesn't have to fill out the price breaks columns if the minimum order QTY is higher. In order to fix the issues raised by Industry, Canada is releasing with this solicitation amendment, a revised version of Annex F – Microsoft Excel® Workbook
- b) Canada is releasing with this solicitation amendment, a revised version of Annex F – Microsoft Excel® Workbook in order to fix all Errors messages.

2. Annex F – Microsoft Excel® Workbook

1. Extension:

ALL OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS REMAIN UNCHANGED
