2.2 Question No. 2

Question:

If it is the intent of this design to keep all power/com. ports along that spine of the stations, can we shift the power/com. to the left/right so that it is uniform from one station to the next while still clearing obstacles (i.e.: lockers) and staying along the spine of the groupings?

Answer:

Yes, as long as obstacles are cleared and the appropriate distance from the power ports to the main work surface (the 48" x 30" sit/stand) are respected, power can be shifted along the spine.
