Amendment no. 001 is raised to publish a question and answer:

Question 01: Given the requested quantity, this chair is obviously intended to satisfy a large number of varied users - and presumably these chairs would be for use at personal individual work stations. Often, female users find that breathable materials on the seat pan can be uncomfortable from a temperature perspective - mostly due to the style of clothing regularly worn, such as dresses and skirts, and choice of fabrics.

Further, in a large open space (vs closed cubicles), a mesh seat creates significant visual clutter because those occupying the workspace can see the mechanisms and all levers through the mesh seat and more of the mechanism and lever are exposed on the sides of the chairs.

For first chair product (7OCHNBMLAASSALMTCUDB), will Canada also accept an office chair with all the same identified attributes except that upholstery would consist of breathable material on the back and fabric on the seat - namely, GoCUID 7OCHNBMLAASSALMTCUBF?

Answer 01: Yes, GoCUID 7OCHNBMLAASSALMTCUBF is also acceptable.
