Amendment 003 to Solicitation EN438-201001/A – Unexploded Explosive Ordnance (UXO) Clearance

The purpose of this amendment is to:

1. Post questions received from bidders and the answers; and
2. Amend the solicitation.

1.

Question 1: Is a company who meets all technical requirements allowed to be involved with multiple bids (i.e. a submission on their own and part of a JV submission(s))? We did not see anything in the RFP or SACC manual that addresses being included in multiple submissions.

Answer 1: No. Please refer to clause 2.8 – Limitation of Submissions added in this amendment.

Refer: PART 2 – BIDDER INSTRUCTIONS

Insert:

2.8 Limitation of Submissions

1. A Proponent (person or entity) may not submit more than one proposal. This limitation also applies to the persons or entities in the case of a joint venture. If more than one proposal is received from a Proponent (or, in the case of a joint venture, from the persons or entities), all such proposals shall be rejected and no further consideration shall be given.
2. A joint venture is defined as an association of two or more parties which combine their money, property, knowledge, skills, time or other resources in a joint business enterprise agreeing to share the profits and the losses and each having some degree of control over the enterprise.
3. An arrangement whereby Canada contracts directly with a prime consultant who may retain sub-consultants or specialist consultants to perform portions of the services is not a joint venture arrangement. A sub-consultant or specialist consultant may, therefore, be proposed as part of the Consultant Team by more than one Proponent. The Proponent warrants that it has written permission from such sub-consultant or specialist consultant to propose their services in relation to the services to be performed.
4. Notwithstanding paragraph 3. above, in order to avoid any conflict of interest, or any perception of conflict of interest, a Proponent shall not include in its submission another Proponent as a member of its consultant team, as a sub-consultant or specialist consultant.
5. Any joint venture entered into for the provision of professional services or other services must be in full compliance with the requirements of any provincial or territorial law pertaining thereto in the Province or Territory in which the project is located.

ALL OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS REMAIN UNCHANGED
