Questions and Answers: The following information is issued in response to questions received from bidders:

Question 1:

For Attachment 1 to Part 4, Mandatory Requirements, can you please advise if M1-M4 should be included as part of Section I: Technical Offer, or should they go under Section III: Certifications?

If they should go under Section I, then would the only document required for Section III: Certifications be Attachment 1 to Part 5 (M5), and perhaps the declaration if the Offerer is a former Public Servant?

Answer 1:

The Attachment 1 to Part 4 Mandatory Requirements (M1 to M4) should be included as part of Section I: Technical Offer. Rated Requirements (R1 to R3) should also be included as part of Section I: Technical Offer.

The only document required for Section III: Certifications is Attachment 1 to Part 5. We have include this requirement in the Mandatory Requirement (M5) of evaluation purposes only. The declaration if the Offerer is a former Public Servant can be included anywhere in your bid package.
