Solicitation Amendment No. 013

This solicitation is hereby amended to provide the following questions and answers:

Q1. Amendment No. 001 versus Amendment No. 009: please confirm that Section IV: Additional Information has been removed, and that Annex F should reside with Section III: Certifications in the response.

A1. Yes, that is correct. Annex F should be included in Section III: Certifications.

No Modifications required.

Q2. Amendment No. 001: please confirm that pricing in Section II: Financial Bid should be presented using the format on page 2 of the original RFP. (Note: Amendment No. 001 refers to Basis of Payment in Annex A, which is blank.

A2. Yes, please use the format on page 2 of the original RFP and incorporate all changes required from the RFP amendments.

No Modifications required.

Q3. Amendment No. 004: by adding lines 13d and 14d to the pricing tables in Section II: Financial, should bidders also delete lines 8 and 9 from the pricing tables?

A3. The recommended spare parts list (RSPL) and the 2 years' worth of spares are separate deliverables.

No Modifications required.

Q4. Should bidders correct the compliance matrices to reflect changes to the requirements that have been updated in the amendments?

A4. No need to update the compliance matrices.

No Modifications required.

Q5. Amendment No. 006: please confirm that the recommended spare parts list should be submitted with Section II: Financial Bid, in addition to being priced in lines 13d and 14d.

A5. The recommended spare parts list (RSPL) costs should be submitted with Section II: Financial Bid as a part of the financial bid.

No Modifications required.

Q6. RFP, Annex D, 2.2.5: please confirm that, if a bidder is submitting proposals for both the in-line image intensifier and the thermal imager, that two complete and separate proposals should be submitted (versus submitting one proposal with designated attachments for each product).

A6. How the bidder structures their bid is at the bidders discretion.

No Modifications required.

Q7. Does the customer want bidders to submit a completed and signed copy of just the original RFP with our proposals, or should we also sign/return each amendment as well?

A7. It would be preferred that the original RFP and all amendments are included but not required.

No Modifications required.

Q8. I just have a question in relation to the pricing table. Amendment No. 004 stated that line items 8 and 9, spares for 2 years would be used for financial evaluation. The same amendment added in line items 13d and 14d which are the RSPL. Is DND requesting pricing for 2 years spares as well as an RSPL pricing in this table? Both are firm and are essentially costing spare parts twice for each equipment. The spares for 2 years are the manufacturer's RSPL.

A8. The recommended spare parts list (RSPL) and the 2 years' worth of spares are separate deliverables.

No Modifications required.
