QUESTION AND ANSWER – SERIES 1

- Q1. Would PSPC consider extending the RFI response submission date to September?
- A1. The RFI response submission date remains unchanged but the RFI closing date is extended to December 18, 2020 in order to allow for the exchange of information. Canada will continue to accept RFI responses from interested respondents beyond August 12, 2020. Response submitted after this date may however not be given full consideration in the formulation of policy or procurement strategy. Please refer to Amendment #1.
- Q2. Do Suppliers need to have the existing assets or could it be project based for future supply?
- A2. For the purposes of the RFI, Suppliers' responses could be based on existing assets and/or on assets to be developed in the future.
- Q3. How can a Supplier be added on the List of Interested Suppliers.
- A3. To be added to the list of interested suppliers, Suppliers may register on the following link, <https://buyandsell.gc.ca/procurement-data/tender-notice/PW-HL-675-78874/list-of-interested-suppliers/join-the-list-of-interested-suppliers>.
- Q4. Can the responses to Annex B be on a question-by-question format and in MS Word?
- A4. Please refer to the RFI, Part 2 – Response Instructions and Information, 2.5 Format of Responses for a detailed information on the response format. Responses in MS Word format is acceptable and should contain the information listed in the Response Content (article 2.5.1).
