THIS AMENDMENT IS RAISED TO RESPOND TO BIDDERS' QUESTIONS

Question 1: Our company "X" is a Canadian company, however our parent organization is not. We will be bidding as "X" a wholly Canadian entity, however will we be considered "Canadian" for the purposes of responding to this Tender?

Answer 1: Yes, if you are a Canadian subsidiary of the parent organization you are considered as a Canadian entity. As referenced in Standard Instructions 2003 (2020-05-28) Section 04 Definition of a Bidder: "Bidder" means the person or entity (or, in the case of a joint venture, the persons or entities) submitting a bid to perform a contract for goods, services or both. It does not include the parent, subsidiaries or other affiliates of the Bidder, or its subcontractors.

As stated in Part 5, section 5.1.2.1 Canadian Content Certification this solicitation involves a preference for Canadian services. Clause A3050T, Canadian Content Definition states:

A service provided by an individual based in Canada is considered a Canadian service.... For requirements consisting of more than one service, a minimum of 80 percent of the total bid price must be provided by individuals based in Canada.

Therefore, if there are two or more bids with a valid Canadian Content certification the evaluation process will be limited to those bids; otherwise, all bids will be evaluated.

Question 2: The Tender specifies that the successful bidder will have extensive experience in specific areas relating to various forms of Radar. Our company has the required experience and we can provide examples, however some of these examples will be foreign insofar as they will have occurred outside of Canada. Furthermore, some of the experience we have accumulated will be through our Parent organization, and not necessarily by the Canadian subsidiary. Does this preclude us from applying?

Answer 2: No, this does not preclude you for applying. The criteria for experience does not include geographic location, therefore as long as the other stated criteria are met experience outside of Canada will be considered as valid. However, as covered in Answer 1, as the Bidder you cannot submit experience accumulated through your parent organization. Your submitted experience must come through your Canadian subsidiary.

Question 3: Could you make the solicitation Word Document version available?

Answer 3: The document is available upon request. Please send an email to:
