SECTION 1 – INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this section is to provide general information about the International Development Research Centre (“IDRC” or “Centre”) and this RFP.

1.1 IDRC OVERVIEW

IDRC was established by an act of Canada’s parliament in 1970 with a mandate “to initiate, encourage, support, and conduct research into the problems of the developing regions of the world and into the means for applying and adapting scientific, technical, and other knowledge to the economic and social advancement of those regions.” A Canadian Crown corporation, IDRC supports leading thinkers who advance knowledge and solve practical development problems. IDRC provide the resources, advice, and training they need to implement and share their solutions with those who need them most. In short, IDRC increases opportunities — and makes a real difference in people’s lives. Working with development partners, IDRC multiplies the impact of investment and brings innovations to more people in more countries around the world. IDRC offers fellowships and awards to nurture a new generation of development leaders. IDRC employs about 375 people at the head office located in Ottawa, Canada and in five (5) regional offices located in New Delhi-India, Montevideo-Uruguay, Amman-Jordan, Nairobi-Kenya, and Dakar-Senegal. IDRC is governed by a board of up to 14 governors, whose chairperson reports to Parliament through the Minister of International Development. For more details visit: www.idrc.ca

SECTION 2 – STATEMENT OF WORK

This section is intended to provide Proponents with the information necessary to develop a competitive proposal. The Statement of Work (“SOW”) is a complete description of the tasks to be done, results to be achieved, and/or the goods to be supplied.

2.1 INTRODUCTION AND PROJECT OVERVIEW

The Initiative’s main objective is to nurture a new generation of young actors – university faculty and students, civil society leaders, think tank researchers, and public officials-, bringing them together to improve collaboration and to increase the use of research for evidence-based gender responsive economic and democratic policy development. To achieve this, the Initiative is structured around four modalities: (i) capacity development for individuals, (ii) organizational development and (iii) research projects – which are linked through a fourth, cross-cutting modality of active engagement and collaboration.

The final evaluation will assess the effectiveness of program implementation and the significance and relevance of program outcomes including how they correspond to expectations of the initiative. The expected outcomes of the K4DM initiative are clearly stated in the donor agreement with Global Affairs Canada, reflected in the Logical Framework and the Performance Monitoring Framework. The evaluation is also expected to highlight lessons, best practices and recommendations for any future programming.

The primary users of this evaluation is IDRC and GAC management (K4DM Executive Committee) who will use the final evaluation to ensure accountability for the implementation of the initiative and delivery of expected results. An important secondary user is the K4DM team for whom the intended uses are peer-learning and drawing out lessons to improve and adjust research and intervention design. Additional audiences include K4DM grantees and broader research for development stakeholders in Myanmar.

2.2 DESCRIPTION AND SCOPE OF WORK

2.2.1 Project Scope

In Scope:

The final evaluation’s main goals are to:

- 1) Review the implementation and operation of the K4DM Initiative, including the coherence of its modalities, as well as the effectiveness of program adaptation to respond to unforeseen challenges and/or opportunities.
- 2) Evaluate the significance and relevance of program outcomes. This will include how they correspond to expectations of the initiative, and also unintended outcomes.
- 3) Assess the extent to which the K4DM Initiative has been able to appropriately respond to the recommendations of the mid-term evaluation (2019).
- 4) Identify lessons and recommendations in collaboration with the K4DM team for possible future IDRC programming in Myanmar (2022 – onwards).

Evaluation Questions. More specifically, the final evaluation will be designed to answer the following questions:

Delivery of outcomes

- 1) How has K4DM contributed to or facilitated stakeholder consultation, engagement and collaboration on issues related to gender responsive democratic transition, and economic development?
 - a. How has program design and cross-project activities been effective, coherent and relevant¹?
 - b. How has effective research² been conducted thanks to the initiative?
 - c. What can be learned from the use and promotion of communications such as newsletters, IDRC web entries (such as Research in Action and newsletters), support for research dissemination, training on communications and think-tank support, knowledge events and fora supported and organized by K4DM?
 - d. To what extent are K4DM projects enabling promotion of / progress towards gender equality in Myanmar? What needs to be improved to enable gender equality?
- 2) How has K4DM contributed to the use of research for evidence-based policy development?
 - a. How have capacity building activities contributed to the development of policy relevant research and responses by think-tanks and universities?
 - b. How has K4DM supported research and research outputs contributed to the development of policies supporting democratic transition and economic development?
 - c. How have research projects increased knowledge about gender equality in Myanmar?
 - d. How have research projects increased inclusion of ethnic minorities and decentralization?

Lessons for future

What lessons can be drawn from K4DM Initiative program implementation and management arrangements that could benefit future programming in Myanmar? What worked and what could be improved in the 21 projects under K4DM? What lessons and best practices can be drawn from K4DM responses (programmatic or management level) to unforeseen circumstances such as the Rohingya Crisis (2017) or the COVID-19 pandemic (2020)? To what extent did K4DM effectively work in Myanmar, given the unique and fragile context of Myanmar?

¹ Effectiveness – what is the progress toward expected outcomes (including immediate, intermediate and ultimate outcomes) with reference to program design? What is the link and contribution of outputs to outcomes under each of the 21 projects in the initiative?

Coherence of implementation – taking into consideration the fragile context, risks, and expectations involved, how well the initiative-wide strategy has been implemented (choices made and priorities set and/or evolved). How has the strategy adaptations to address challenges and exploit emerging opportunities? How has resource utilization contributed to the production of outputs and progress toward expected and unexpected outcomes?

Relevance – How has each of the projects addressed a demonstrable need and is responsive to the needs of Myanmar relevant stakeholders? What are the linkages between K4DM objectives and IDRC/GAC priorities? How adequate is the Initiative’s design or mix of activities or modalities to address the challenge of supporting knowledge systems to the service of an emerging inclusive democracy in Myanmar?

² IDRC uses the Quality Research Plus (RQ+) framework to assess effectiveness of research, more information on this approach can be found here: <https://www.idrc.ca/en/research-in-action/research-quality-plus>

- i. Effective research is one that accept a multi-dimensional view of quality in research. Scientific rigor is fundamental but concepts of quality should include other values and objectives that matter to organizations.
- ii. Effective research accounts for the context in which research happens.
- iii. As with the research, judgement of “quality” must be underpinned by empirical evidence

2.2.2 Methodology

The Consultant(s)/evaluation team will propose a methodology based on the following information. Additional methods of conducting the evaluation can be considered as long as they are guided by principles of utility, quality, collaboration and knowledge sharing and transparency³

- Document Review: Perform an in-depth document review of the K4DM Initiative and the 21 projects to be provided by K4DM program management in readable format for the consultant:
 - K4DM core project documents (including documentation on calls for proposals, trip reports, project monitoring reports, project approval documents, and final project reports for those projects that have concluded),
 - K4DM core management/operation documents (proposals, minutes of executive committees; national advisory committee; workplans 2018/19, 2019/20, 2020/21; comms strategy;
 - IDRC-GAC proposal including the Logic Model and the Performance Measure Framework)
 - Evaluation-related materials (Study on knowledge/research systems in Myanmar by the Global Development Network; Mid-term evaluation conducted during the summer of 2019; and Annual reports 2017-18, 2018-19, 2019-20, 2020-21- draft)
 - Communications materials (newsletters, blogs, event summaries, etc).
- Quantitative data collection and analysis: The Consultants will have access to K4DM databases compiling information gathered from the Technical Reports (IDRC's Trackify)
- Qualitative data collection and analysis: The Consultants will conduct in-depth interviews to solicit perspectives from K4DM grantees, K4DM management team and other relevant IDRC staff, and GAC focal points in Yangon and Ottawa (and others as specified), and other key external stakeholders.
- After selection, IDRC will facilitate an online inception workshop with the Consultant(s) and K4DM team, including an IDRC senior evaluation officer. The workshop will discuss the evaluation's scope of work, based on the initial proposal submitted by the evaluation team. The evaluation approach should promote engagement with intended users of the evaluation to support learning (Early March 2021)
 - Following the inception workshop, the Consultant(s) will finalize an evaluation design plan for approval by K4DM and GAC (Early April 2021). This plan will include: the evaluation questions to be addressed; the proposed methodology; a work plan including a timeline for key outputs; an outline of proposed evaluation team members, including their expertise and roles; a list of needs and expectations of K4DM staff to support the stated activities; and a description of limitations with a risk mitigation strategy where appropriate. (Late March 2021)

³ Utility: evaluation are designed to meet the needs of its intended users. Evaluations should produce actionable findings to help us test theories of change, learn from successes and failures, and improve strategy and results. Users' participation in evaluation processes helps ensure relevance and ownership of the evaluation findings.

Quality: Evaluation should meet high quality standards. Quality includes the utility of evaluation, the use of rigorous methods, and safeguarding ethical standards. Evaluation is not value-neutral, and specific attention needs to be paid to including diverse perspectives and addressing inequalities in the evaluation process.

Collaboration and shared benefit: Evaluation should be designed to meet collective needs and be an asset for those being evaluated. IDRC will negotiate the purpose, design and governance of evaluation with funding partners to avoid duplication, and to ensure utility for all parties.

Knowledge sharing and transparency: Learning about the findings and practice of evaluation should be documented and shared. Knowledge sharing helps build evaluation capacity and ensures evaluation remains relevant to the issues and priorities for development and development research. Evaluations should be publicly accessible. Evaluations commissioned IDRC are available through the Centre's public digital library

- Tentative field visit or online engagement with K4DM grantees in Yangon (March-June 2021)
- Presentation of preliminary findings in draft report to the K4DM team to discuss finding and lessons and map out feasible recommendations (June 2021)
- Final evaluation report of about 20-25 pages (July - August 2021), that incorporates feedback obtained on the draft report, will be made public by IDRC, as is the case with all external evaluations. The evaluation team will include, together with the report:
 - An executive summary of evaluation findings and recommendations no more than 2 pages in both English and Myanmar language.
 - An appendix with details on methodology, informants and data collection on each project.

2.2.3 Consultant(s) Evaluation Team Requirements

The proposed evaluation team should have the following criteria:

- a. A senior consultant or team lead, either based in or with necessary ground support in Myanmar commensurate with budget. Diversity in the team is an asset.
- b. Expertise in international development and higher education with proven experience in program evaluation and research assessment in South-East Asia. Familiarity with the Myanmar context is a must. Expertise in gender-sensitive research is essential.
- c. Ability to travel, if possible and necessary, to meet K4DM staff and grantees in Myanmar as well as capacity to conduct intensive on-line communications⁴

2.2.4 Project Budget

The estimated budget for this project is CAD 65-75,000 (plus travel if needed).

2.3 IDRC RESPONSIBILITIES, SUPPORT, AND REPRESENTATIVES

IDRC will identify a Project Authority to whom the successful Proponent will report during the period of a resulting Contract. The Project Authority will be responsible for coordinating the overall delivery of service, providing as required direction and guidance to the Proponent, monitoring Proponent performance and accepting and approving Proponent deliverables on behalf of IDRC. The Project Authority will ensure that appropriate subject matter experts from within IDRC are available to the Proponent to discuss and provide content material, as well as facilitate cooperation with regional IDRC staff and other stakeholders, as required.

Global Affairs Canada will be consulted throughout the selections process of the consultant and the evaluation process, as IDRCs partner in the initiative and one of the main beneficiaries. The successful consultant will coordinate consultations with GAC through the Project Authority.

IDRC will identify a Travel Administrative Representative, who will manage all travel requirements approved by the Project Authority.

⁴ Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, travel to Myanmar and in-country mobility might continue to be restricted or difficult, appropriate contingency plans and timelines accounting for possible delays or alternative arrangements are expected to be presented by consultant

IDRC will identify a Contracting Authority, who will oversee a resulting Contract throughout its lifecycle, in conjunction with the Project Authority and the Proponent, create amendments for any changes to a resulting Contract, and answer questions on terms and conditions.

2.4 LOCATION OF WORK AND TRAVEL

Work is expected to take place at the Proponent's site and onsite in co-ordination with IDRC's Project Authority. If travel occurs, and depending on COVID-19 restriction, it will be coordinated with IDRC's designated project authority. Possible travel plans (locations, objectives, budgets and timelines) should be included in the proposal submitted to IDRC.

2.5 PERIOD OF A RESULTING CONTRACT

A resulting Contract is expected to commence on March 1, 2021 and conclude by August 1, 2021

SECTION 3 – PROPOSAL EVALUATION

This section describes the process that IDRC will use to evaluate Proposals and select a Lead Proponent.

3.1 EVALUATION COMMUNICATION

During Proposal evaluations, IDRC reserves the right to contact or meet with any individual Proponent in order to obtain clarification of its submission or to gain insight into the quality and scope of relevant services. A Proponent will not be allowed to add, change, or delete any information during the process. IDRC is in no way obligated to meet with any or all Proponents for this purpose.

3.2 EVALUATION METHODOLOGY

IDRC will use the following methodology to evaluate Proposals:

3.2.1 Step 1 - Mandatory Requirements

Each Proposal will be examined to determine compliance (pass or fail) with all IDRC's Mandatory Requirements as set out in Annex B. Non-compliant Proposals will receive no further consideration.

Summary Table:

RFP Section	Mandatory Requirements	Pass or Fail
Annex B	Mandatory Requirements in response to the Statement of Work

3.2.2 Step 2 - Rated Requirements

Compliant Proposals will be evaluated and attributed points according to the degree to which they meet or exceed IDRC's Rated Requirements as set out in Annex C.

*Points Table:

Points	Points Description
0	Barely addresses any of the stated requirements and completely lacking in critical areas
3	Adequately meets most of the stated requirements. May be lacking in some areas which are not critical
5	Meets most stated requirements
7	Meets all stated requirements

8	Meets all stated requirements and may exceed some
10	Exceeds the stated requirements in superlative and beneficial ways

3.2.3 Step 3 – Shortlist and Interviews

The top compliant and highest scoring technical proposals will be shortlisted for further review. Shortlisted Proponents may be asked to provide additional information prior to the final selection. IDRC reserves the right to supply more information to those Proponents who are shortlisted.

3.2.4 Step 4 - Financials

The Proponents' Financial Proposals will be scored. The Proponent submitting the lowest price will receive the maximum 10 points on the standard evaluation scale of 0-10. All other Proponents will receive a prorated score out of 10 based on the relative proportion of their price to the lowest price submitted.

3.2.5. Step 4 - Final Score

Scores for the shortlisted Proponents' proposals will be calculated, and IDRC may select the Lead Proposal achieving the highest total points ("Lead Proponent"), subject to IDRC's reserved rights.

Summary Table:

RFP Section	Rated Requirements	Weighting % A	*Points 0-10 B	Score A x B
Annex C
"	Resources section	50
"	Methodology section	40
4.6	Financials: Total pricing, exclusive of taxes	10
	Total %	100

3.3 PROPONENT FINANCIAL CAPACITY

IDRC reserves the right to conduct an assessment of the Lead Proponent's financial capacity. IDRC may request that the Lead Proponent provide proof of financial stability via bank references, financial statements, or other similar evidence. This is a pass/fail test. Pass means that Contract discussions begin. Fail means that the Lead Proponent may not enter into Contract discussions and is disqualified from further consideration. The Lead Proponent must provide this information upon 72 hours of IDRC's request; failure to comply may result in disqualification.

Note: In the case of a joint venture or consortium, each and all members of the joint venture or consortium must provide the information required for their legal form.

3.4 PROPONENT SELECTION

As noted in section 5.8, acceptance of a proposal does not oblige IDRC to incorporate any or all of the accepted proposal into a contractual agreement, but rather demonstrates a willingness on the part of IDRC to enter into negotiations for the purpose of arriving at a satisfactory contractual arrangement with one or more parties.

Without changing the intent of this RFP or the Lead Proponent's proposal, IDRC will enter into discussions with the Lead Proponent for the purpose of finalizing the Contract.

In the event no satisfactory Contract can be negotiated between the Lead Proponent and IDRC, IDRC may terminate negotiations. In such event, if IDRC feels that the Proponent with the second highest score may meet the requirements, IDRC will continue the process with the secondary Proponent, and so on.

Announcement of the successful Proponent will be made to all Proponents following the signing of a Contract no later than 72 days following the award of a Contract. Upon request from an unsuccessful Proponent, IDRC will provide the reasons why that particular proposal was not selected.
