Bidder's Question 006	Based on our research, we do not believe that any hardware manufacturer can meet all of the other Mandatory requirements and Mandatory 3.3 which requires FCC Class A Certification for hardware. Will the Crown change the requirement to "FCC Class A or FCC Class B Certification"? This still ensures that the Crown receives FCC-tested and compliant hardware.
Canada's Response to Question 006	Canada will accept devices with FCC Class A certification or FCC Class B certification.

ALL OTHER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS SOLICITATION REMAIN UNCHANGED.
