SOLICITATION AMENDMENT 007

In accordance with Part 2 – Article 2.4 – Enquiries, this question and the corresponding answer is provided to all Suppliers.

SECTION A – QUESTION AND ANSWER

Note: This question may have been modified and/or condensed.

Question 1:

Can you please confirm if all psychologists require a security clearance?

Answer 1:

As per detailed in Annex D – RCMP Security Guide,

BACKGROUND / APPLICATION

The security requirements of this guide are intended primarily for the contracted company who will be coordinating the overall project with the RCMP and medical / psychological professionals. With regards to the health care practitioners (medical and psychological) who will be dealing directly with applicants the security of information requirements are governed by respective professional code of ethics and regulations unless noted otherwise in this document.

RCMP security clearances will only be required for employees from the primary contracted company who will be coordinating the overall project. RCMP security clearances will not be required for the health care practitioners (medical and psychological) governed by respective professional code of ethics and regulations.
