Description of the Requirement:

By means of the RFP, Natural Resources Canada (NRCan) is seeking proposals from bidders for the services of Business Consultants and Change Management Consultants as well as the provision of a workplace analytics data collection platform.

NRCan would like to develop an inventory of how employees worked pre-pandemic and how conditions have changed post-pandemic. The information gathered will provide an appropriate and feasible re-entry plan, including accommodation solutions for NRCan. This would include developing a dashboard and an options analysis and workplace strategy framework to determine options for the eventual return to work and beyond.
