This Amendment 002 is raised to answer questions received on the Request for Standing Offer (RFSO).

Question 2

Will you consider submissions from a sole proprietorship with no employees (ie: a firm run by a single Architect AIBC)?

Response 2

A sole proprietorship is able to submit on this solicitation. Joint ventures are also acceptable. Successful offerors must be able to provide resources to fulfill all the Categories of Personnel identified as required to perform any eventual work.

Question 3

Will you consider submissions from an Offeror that has not completed a project meeting the description in section SRE 3.2.3 Past Experience 2. a) ii) remote location?

Response 3

If no project meeting SRE 3.2.3 2.a) ii has been completed, submissions will still be considered; however, scoring will be reflected accordingly.

Question 4

Please provide clarification on item SRE 3.2.1 Comprehension of the Scope of Services 2. c) broader goals (federal image, sustainable development, sensitivities)

Response 4

This refers to items such as the Department of Fisheries and Oceans / Canadian Coast Guard's mandate letter and other information publically available on the DFO website. For example: <https://pm.gc.ca/en/mandate-letters/2019/12/13/minister-fisheries-oceans-and-canadian-coast-guard-mandate-letter>

All other terms and conditions remain unchanged.
