Description of the Requirement:

The Public Prosecution Service of Canada has a requirement for the services of a Procurement Specialist to define the scope, the deliverables and the contractual conditions that apply to the provision of procurement, contracting and supply support services to the Finance and Acquisitions Directorate (FAD).

FAD is responsible for providing procurement, contracting, materiel management and financial management support to the entire Public Prosecution Service of Canada organization. As result of multiple changes in the organization in recent years, there is a requirement to develop our contracting policy suite and a contract quality control procedure.
