Amendment 003 is raised to answer bidder questions:

Q1. As per section 5.2. The Offeror must provide the following documents;

- 5.2.1. Manufacturer's specifications in English and French
- 5.2.2. Manufacturer's user guide in English and French

Could you please confirm if only the successful bidder (contractor) must provide Manufacturer's specifications and user guide in both French and English language?

A1: User guides are only required from the successful bidder after Contract award.

Manufacturer's specifications would assist the technical evaluation team during the evaluation and are recommended to be provided by all interested suppliers with their bid.

It is required that all materials are available in English and be available in French upon request.

Q2. Could you please advise if the contractor responsible is for the installation of the fitness equipment of this procurement?

A2: There is no "installation" required into the floor or walls at the delivery site, however, the successful bidder must assemble the equipment as per Annex "A" item 8.6 stating offeror must assemble at delivery location.

Q3. Would you accept a bike with a length of 61" instead of maximum 54" as per Annex A item 3.1.4?

A3: No, maximum acceptable length is 54".

Q4. Will you remove clause 5.1.2.1 Canadian Content Certification?

A4: No, this clause is required to be included when international trade agreements do not apply to the requirement.

Please note:

As per section 5.1.2.1 this requirement is subject to a preference for Canadian Content:

If your goods meet the definition of "Canadian goods", as defined in clause A3050T you must certify this by placing a check mark in the parentheses.

Failure to provide this certification completed with the bid will result in the good(s) offered being treated as non-Canadian goods.

Q5. Can we submit a bid if we cannot certify the goods being offered meet the definition of Canadian goods?

A5: Anyone is permitted to submit a bid, regardless of whether or not they can certify they are Canadian goods as per the definition in A3050T.

This requirement is conditionally limited to Canadian Content which means, as per section 4.1 (c), if there are two (2) or more bids with a valid Canadian content certification only those bids will be eligible to be awarded a contract.

Please refer to section 4.1 (c) for further details on Evaluation Procedures and Canadian content.
