ITQ - Questions and Answers

Question 13:

- (a) In the event that the Joint Venture must be formed before the ITQ closing date, then we request a delay to the ITQ closing date to the 21st of January 2022 as the establishment of the a Joint Venture is a new requirement and a complex business undertaking that can't be executed in 3 business days.
- (b) Further, if a Joint Venture is required before ITQ closing date, is Form 1 – ITQ Submission Form sufficient proof of the establishment of the Joint Venture? If not, could Canada please specify what documentation needs to be provided to demonstrate that the Respondent is indeed a Joint Venture.

Answer 13:

- (a) Canada is granting an extension and the closing date has been updated on the tender notice.
- (b) In order to demonstrate that a Respondent is a Joint Venture, a Respondent must submit:
 - a. a properly completed Form 1 – ITQ Submission Form listing and signed by all the members of the Joint Venture; and
 - b. any information required by SACC 2003 Standard Instructions – Goods or Services – Competitive Requirements (2020-05-28) Section 17 Joint venture.

Question 14:

May a Respondent provide intention to form a Joint Venture to qualify for this ITQ?

Answer 14:

No. Please see the answer to Question 11 for further details, including that:

- if the Respondent to this ITQ is a Joint Venture, it must be a Joint Venture at the ITQ closing Date;
- a Respondent cannot rely on a third party's experience unless the third party is a member of the Respondent's Joint Venture on or before the ITQ Closing Date; and
- if the Respondent to this ITQ now chooses to submit (A) a completed Form 1 – ITQ Submission Form and (C) a letter to the CA confirming that its response to the Original ITQ represents its response to this ITQ ("Confirming Letter"), the Respondent should note any changes it wishes to submit relating to its response to the Original ITQ. For example, if the Respondent to this ITQ submitted a letter to demonstrate its intent to form a Joint Venture by the Joint Venture Closing Date under the Original ITQ (the "Original Intent Letter"), then the Confirming Letter for this ITQ must advise Canada to disregard the Original Intent Letter.

It remains the Respondent's responsibility to satisfy itself as to the adequacy of its response to this ITQ.
