Solicitation Amendment No. 03

This solicitation is hereby amended to answer the following questions:

Q4. In amendment 1, question 1, the answer included, "The carrier must stay till all the TEUs are unloaded," what does this entail exactly? We are under the assumption that it means that all trucks would have to remain on site until each truck is unloaded, making multiple trucks remain idle one by one. After one truck has been unloaded, can it leave?

A4. Yes once the TEU has been unloaded the truck that brought it to location can leave.

Q5. Do all trucks have to arrive there at once? Can the trucks come in singles or batches? And can they leave the site after unloading?

A5. They are not to arrive all at once, they can arrive one by one, we would prefer the delivery to be in a day time laps not on per example on a week long.

Q6. If all the trucks have to remain on site until the last truck is unloaded, how long would the process take for it all if the trucks would have to be held up? If it can be done individually, how long roughly for each truck?

A6. The lot of trucks doesn't have to stay in place, once unloaded they can leave. The approx. time to unload can vary with the weather conditions and personnel we have at hand, unload time can take 20 min to 45 min.

All other terms and conditions of the solicitation document remain unchanged.
