Part 2. Questions and Answers

The following questions have been asked in response to the Request for Standing Offer and Elections Canada on behalf of the Commissioner, hereby answers as follows:

2.1 Question No. 3

Question:

Regarding Mandatory Technical Criteria 4, “The Offeror must demonstrate (...) that the proposed resource, has experience in conducting various steps of an investigation which must include the following elements;

- a) Two (2) applications for judicial authorization
- b) (...)”

Could you please clarify for “judicial authorization”?

Answer:

Applications for judicial authorization refers to the application for a judicial (court) order, such as a search warrant or production order or other formal order in order to obtain evidence. Such an application is typically in the nature of an Information to Obtain (ITO) or Affidavit or similar sworn document from an investigator.
