Number	Questions/Answers/Amendments
Question 1:	Is the duplicate reference to "R Programming" in RT3 a typo that should say "Python Programming"?
Answer 1:	Refer to Amendment 1.
Amendment 1	DELETE RT3 - Rated Requirement - of the POINT-RATED EVALUATION CRITERIA in its entirety only and INSERT the following: RT3 - In addition to MT 8, the Bidder should clearly demonstrate the training provides more than five modules of each of the following Python programming topics: a) Importing data; b) Functions; c) Algorithms; d) Packages; e) Data types; f) Data manipulation, including importing, cleaning, and joining data; and g) Data visualization.
Question 2:	For RT1, is it correct to interpret as 5 topics x 10 or more modules per topic, for a total of 50 or more modules to receive full points?
Answer 2:	Yes.
Question 3:	Can we submit an alternate option of remote live sessions?
Answer 3:	As these courses must be available to provide the training to people within 5 different time zones, and allow them to progress at their own pace, live sessions are not being considered.
