AMENDMENT 001 TO THE RFSO

A1. At Section 1.2.2 Streams of Work

Delete:

Offerors may submit an Offer for one OR more streams of Work.

NOTE: If an Offeror is submitting an Offer for more than one stream of Work, a separate Offer should be submitted for each stream.

For streams 1, 2 and 3, the Standing Offers will be awarded based on the proposed Resource(s). The Resource(s) will be named in the Standing Offer as the qualified Resource(s) who performs the service.

For Stream 1 and 2, an Offeror may submit multiple Resources. Each Resource will be evaluated individually and ranked individually using the identified selection methodology to determine the ranking of the Offers/Resources, and whether or not a Standing Offer will be awarded for the individual Resource.

For stream 1 and 2, should the qualified Resource(s) no longer be available, the Standing Offer will no longer be eligible for use by the CNSC.

For stream 3A and 3B, an Offeror may submit multiple Resources, up to a maximum of 3 Resources. Each Resource will be evaluated individually and ranked individually using the identified selection methodology to determine the ranking of the Resources, and whether or not a Standing Offer will be awarded for the individual Resource.

For Stream 3, should the qualified Resource(s) no longer be available, the CNSC may in its sole discretion determine whether, or not, it will permit the Offeror to qualify a replacement resource.

NOTE: If an Offeror is proposing multiple Resources, a separate Offer should be submitted for each Resource.

5.3.5 Status and Availability of Resources

The Offeror certifies that, should it be issued a Standing Offer as a result of the RFSO, every individual proposed in its Offer will be available to perform the Work resulting from a call-up against the Standing Offer as required by Canada's representatives and at the time specified in a call-up or agreed to with Canada's representatives. If for reasons beyond its control, the Offeror is unable to provide the services of an individual qualified in its Offer, the Offeror may propose a substitute with similar qualifications and experience and/or be acceptable to Canada. The Offeror must advise the Standing Offer Authority of the reason for the substitution and provide the name, qualifications and experience of the proposed replacement. For the purposes of this clause, only the following reasons will be considered as beyond the control of the Offeror: death, sickness, maternity and parental leave, retirement, resignation, dismissal for cause or termination of an agreement for default.

If the Offeror has proposed any individual who is not an employee of the Offeror, the Offeror certifies that it has the permission from that individual to propose their services in relation to the Work to be performed and to submit their résumé to Canada. The Offeror must, upon receiving a request from the Standing Offer Authority, provide a written confirmation, signed by the individual, of the permission given to the Offeror and of their availability. Failure to comply with the request may result in the Offer declared non-responsive.
