THIS AMENDMENT IS RAISED FOR THE PURPOSE OF RESPONDING TO QUESTIONS

- Q5 I have been reading that as part of proposal I am entitled a debrief about my submission.
- A5 You are correct – a debrief is provided at the completion of a procurement process once the competitive bid has been awarded or the project cancelled; however, this procurement is ongoing. To provide you with a debriefing when the procurement has been retendered with the same criteria, would give you a competitive advantage over other (new) bidders. As the government's mandate regarding procurement is to be "open, fair, and transparent" in our contracting practices we cannot provide that information at this time.

We have made changes to the wording in the solicitation to provide clarity and to help bidders provide a successful response. Those sections were noted in amendment 001 to the solicitation.

I would like to direct you to Section 7.40(c)(iv) of the Supply Manual, which states:

- C. If the solicitation is cancelled for reasons other than those mentioned above, bidders/offerors/suppliers will only be informed of which mandatory criteria(s) or rated criteria(s) requiring a minimum score were failed but no detail is to be provided as to why the bidders/offerors/suppliers failed each criteria. No information on other rated criteria(s) is to be provided.*

This information was provided to you in a debrief letter at the conclusion of the original evaluation and represents the only information that can be shared at this time.
