Changes to this LOI may occur and will be advertised on the Gouvernement Electronic Tendering System, <https://canadabuys.canada.ca/en>. Canada asks Respondents to visit the above web site regularly to check for changes.

Notes to Industry:

All submitted information, comments and/or questions must be based solely on the documentation herein and Industry should not reference any other past procurement process.

This LOI is neither a call for tender nor a Request for Proposal (RFP), and no agreement or contract for the procurement of the requirement described herein will be entered into solely as a result of this LOI. The issuance of this LOI is not to be considered in any way as a commitment by Canada or as authority to potential Respondents to undertake any work that could be charged to Canada.

This LOI is not to be considered as a commitment to issue a subsequent solicitation or award contract(s) for the work described herein.

Canada does not intend to award a contract on the basis of the notice or otherwise pay for the information solicited. Any and all expenses incurred by the Respondent in pursuing this opportunity, including the provision of information and potential visits are at the Respondent's sole risk and expense.

Respondents may provide documents / information / data collected as commercial-in-confidence (and if identified as such, will be treated accordingly by Canada). However, Canada reserves the right to use the information to assist them in drafting performance specifications and for budgetary purposes in consultation with both national and international stakeholders. Requirements are subject to change, which may be as a result of information provided in response to this LOI. Participants are advised that any information submitted to Canada in response to this LOI may, or may not, be used by Canada in the development of the potential subsequent RFP. The issuance of this LOI does not create an obligation for Canada to issue a subsequent RFP and does not bind Canada legally or otherwise, to enter into any agreement or to accept or reject any suggestions.

Respondents are encouraged to clearly identify, in writing, in the information they share with Canada, any information they feel is commercial-in-confidence, proprietary, third party or personal. Please note that Canada may be obligated by law (e.g. in response to a request under the Access to Information and Privacy Act) to disclose proprietary or commercially-sensitive information concerning a Respondent (for more information: <http://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/a-1/>).

Respondents are asked to identify, in writing, if their response, or any part of their response, is subject to the Controlled Goods Regulations.

Participation in this LOI is encouraged, but is not mandatory. There will be no short-listing of potential suppliers for the purposes of undertaking any future work as a result of this LOI. Similarly, participation in this LOI is not a condition or prerequisite for the participation in any potential subsequent solicitation.
