Amendment 004

This amendment is raised to respond to questions from Industry:

These questions have been redacted to avoid identification of potential bidders.

Q.23 Would Canada re-consider the modification of R3, removing the requirement for the identification of the 153 personnel and replacing it with a demonstration by the Bidder that they have:

- 1) the corporate experience of successfully managing a number of projects providing professionals and/or engineering support services contracts for the federal government and departments.
- 2) the recruitment engine; and
- 3) the personnel management plan to attest to how it will meet the requirement.

Q.24 Failing a positive response to Question above: would Canada consider making the requirements of R3 apply to Contract Award as opposed to Bid Submission?

A.23 & 24 We have considered your request. For operational reasons, Canada will not change its current requirements. This is Canada's final decision on this matter.

All other terms and conditions remain unchanged.
