This requirement is for re-certification training only, a requirement for the 2-day (16hr) Standard First Aid course is not included herein.

The RCMP has set standards of training for RCMP members relating specifically to SFA, CPR-C & AED's. As per RCMP Policy, this re-certification is mandatory training which candidates must take every 3 (three) years. The co-ordination and delivery of SFA, CPR-C & AED through a blended learning method is an ongoing requirement for members of the RCMP. The method of delivery must be a Blended Learning Delivery. (A combination of practical and online training). The purpose of blended delivery of SFA, CPR-C & AED certification is to provide candidates with the knowledge and skills necessary to help sustain life and minimize the consequences of injury/sudden illness until advanced medical help is available. The knowledge and skills objectives from the blended delivery must remain the same as traditional First Aid Courses. The candidates must successfully complete a self-paced theory component (online training) which includes evaluations. The candidates will then successfully complete a practical classroom component, taught by RCMP instructors at PRTC.

The Contractor will be required to teach the practical portion of their First Aid Training program to a maximum of fifteen (15) RCMP First Aid instructors, up to a maximum of two (2) times per year. The RCMP instructors will in turn train/instruct practical First Aid Training to RCMP candidates.

The contract period will be for one year from the date of contract with an irrevocable option to extend it for up to two additional one-year periods. The anticipated start date is April 1, 2024.
