BETWEEN:

CANADA LANDS COMPANY CLC LIMITED (the "Company")

- and -

[Insert name of the Consultant] (the "Consultant")

IN CONSIDERATION of the amounts payable by the Company to the Consultant according to the [Insert name of the Agreement] Agreement signed between the Company and the Consultant on [Insert date of the Agreement], the Parties have agreed to the following:

These Electronic Funds Transfer Terms and Conditions (the "EFT Agreement") shall become effective upon execution by the Consultant of the EFT Agreement and upon receipt by the Company of the completed Electronic Funds Transfer Authorization Form (the "EFT Form") and the Consultant's specimen voided cheque or a bank-stamped pre-authorized payment form.

Definitions – For the purposes of this Agreement,

- (i) "Processing Institution Account" means the Consultant's account at the financial institution;
- (ii) "Processing Institution" means the financial institution that holds the account to be credited/debited by means of electronic funds transfer;
- (iii) "Payables Payments" means amounts receivable by the Consultant (fees and reimbursement of expenses) according to the [Insert name of the Agreement] Agreement signed between the Company and the Consultant on [Insert date of the Agreement].

In the event that the Company is unable to release one or more payments by way of Electronic Funds Transfer, the Consultant agrees to either a) accept payment by cheque or some other mutually agreeable method of payment; or b) request the Company to extend the payment due date until such time as the Company can make payment by Electronic Funds Transfer.

The Company shall make payment to the Consultant using the banking information provided by the Consultant on the EFT Form. In the event that the information provided has changed, the Consultant shall be responsible to provide the Company with updated information. The Consultant undertakes to inform with sufficient prior written notice to the Company of any changes in the Processing Institution Account information provided in the EFT Form.

Authorization – The Consultant hereby authorizes the Company to deposit or draw on the Processing Institution Account, for the following purposes: a) deposit the Payables Payments according to the invoices submitted by the Consultant to the Company; b) debit the Consultant's Processing Institution Account if an erroneous remittance was made. The Processing Institution Account that the Company

Commented [A10]: If EFT is the method of payment and section 3.6 of the Agreement is not deleted, then the Consultant will have to provide a sign copy of this EFT Agreement as well as a signed copy of the Consulting Services Agreement.

The Consultant also declares and acknowledges to pay any and all service charges that its Processing Institution may levy for this service.

Continuing Authorization – This authorization is continuing and the Company may rely on this authorization for all financial transactions relating to the Payables Payments, until the Consultant notifies the Company of any changes in writing.

Revocation & Change – The Consultant may change or revoke the authorization given to process all Payables Payments via electronic funds transfer at any time upon providing ten (10) business days written notice to the Company, using the EFT Form. The Consultant agrees to notify the Company and return the funds in full within the 48 hours of receipt without dispute of any erroneous payment. To ensure accounting integrity, the Consultant agrees to not use these funds to offset other liabilities owing to them.

Liability for uncompleted transfers – If an uncompleted transfer occurs because the Company used the Consultant's information provided on the EFT Form incorrectly, the Company remains responsible for making a correct payment as soon as reasonably possible after being notified of the uncompleted transfer.

If an uncompleted or erroneous transfer occurs because the Consultant's information provided on the EFT Form was incorrect and if the funds are no longer in the control of the Company, the Company is deemed to have made payment and the Consultant is responsible for recovery of any erroneously directed funds.

In no event shall the Company be liable for any special, incidental, exemplary, or consequential damages as a result of the delay, omission, or error in the transmission of an electronic payment, even if the Company has been advised of the possibility of such damages. In addition, neither party shall be liable for the act or omission of any financial institution or other party.

Prompt Payment – A payment shall be deemed to have been made in a timely manner as soon as the amount has been debited from the Company's bank account.

Notification – The Consultant hereby waives the right to receive pre-notification of the amount of each pre-authorized debit or deposit authorized by the EFT Form and agrees it does not require advance notice of the amount of the pre-authorized debits or deposits before they are processed.
