C. Questions and Answers

- Q1. Can we extend the solicitation deadline?
A1. See section A. above.
- Q2. Rather than proving a modular built 2 story duplex to be shipped in to Fort Chipewyan then assembled, would it be acceptable to bid based on the duplex being 100% constructed with local work force and sourcing the majority of the materials from local Indigenous suppliers and distributors?
A2. Traditional construction will be acceptable. PCA is working on revising and translating the solicitation and project documents. The revised documents will be provided in the next amendment.
- Q3. If a utility connection is required, it will be the owner that needs to do the application and there is likely to be a fee. It is not listed in the scope of work as the responsibility of the contractor. Is this the owner's responsibility?
A3. Please refer to RS4 – Site works & Utilities in the Statement of Work. PCA will submit applications that may be required and pay for any connection fees. The contractor is responsible for the application and costs of any permits required.
- Q4. What is the current site condition?
A4. There was a bungalow with a full concrete foundation demolished last year. The concrete foundation was completely removed, and the hole was backfilled. Existing utility lines for that house still exist at the site and are located on the survey.
- Q5. Can we have a copy of the survey and GeoTech Report?
