Amendment 004

This amendment is raised to answer a question.

Question:

Regarding this solicitation, specifically items #11 and 12, could you please confirm whether the Hex Screw is full thread or partial thread?

Answer:

The thread length is 32.5 mm. For detailed information, please see the table below.

Although some of the DINs are from decades ago, they can be used, and although some of the wording is in German, they provide relevant technical information.
