NON-DISCLOSURE AND CONFIDENTIALITY OF INFORMATION AGREEMENT (“AGREEMENT”)

Between: HIS MAJESTY THE KING IN RIGHT OF CANADA AS REPRESENTED BY THE ROYAL CANADIAN MOUNTED POLICE (“CANADA”)

And: _____
[NAME AND ADDRESS OF INTERESTED OFFEROR]
 (“SUPPLIER”)

The supplier or sub-contractor recognizes that solicitation number 202403570 contains sensitive information or that is the exclusive property of Canada or a third party (confidential information) subject to confidentiality requirements. For the purposes of this Agreement, “information” includes but is not limited to: the solicitation itself, and any documents, instructions, guidelines, data, material, advice or any other information whether received orally, in printed form, recorded electronically or otherwise, regarding the above mention solicitation, whether or not labeled proprietary, confidential or sensitive.

In order to receive the solicitation, the supplier or sub-contractor understands and agrees that:

- 1) The supplier or sub-contractor must not use the information for any purpose other than for the preparation of a response to the solicitation;
- 2) The supplier or sub-contractor will not, without prior written permission of Canada, reproduce, copy, use, divulge, release or disclose, in whole or in part, in whatever way or form (including but not limited to posting on the internet on a website, in social media or posting through any other means) any information to any person, except on a need to know basis to employees of its own company;
- 3) The supplier or sub-contractor will undertake all necessary and appropriate measures, including those set out in any written or oral instructions issued by Canada, to protect the information and to prevent the disclosure of or access to such information in contravention of this Agreement;
- 4) In the event that the decision is made that the supplier is not interested in any further involvement with regards to the solicitation, the supplier must immediately advise the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) Contracting Authority this decision in writing, and immediately deliver the information to such officer, as well as requiring any persons to whom it provided the information to do the same;
- 5) At close or early termination of the solicitation period or at any given time at the request of RCMP Contracting Authority the supplier must immediately deliver the information to such officer and require any person to whom it provided the information to do the same;
- 6) The supplier or sub-contractor recognizes and agrees that it will be responsible for any claim, loss or damage suffered, and for any cost or expense incurred by Canada resulting from suppliers failure, or any person to whom it has disclosed confidential information, to comply with the terms of this Agreement;
- 7) The supplier or sub-contractor agrees that if it fails to safeguard, releases without appropriate authority or uses information for unauthorized purposes, such action may be subject to legal action;
- 8) The release or the issuance of information is neither a commitment by Canada to enter into any agreement or award any contract nor an authorization to the supplier to undertake any work, which could be charged to Canada. Nothing obligates Canada to award any contract for any work whatsoever, and Canada’s obligation to pay for any work is subject to execution of a written contract between the parties;

- 9) The terms of this Agreement shall survive a request by Canada to return the information or the award of a contract; and
- 10) The laws in force in the Province of Ontario, Canada shall govern this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF this Agreement has been duly signed and delivered this _____ day of _____, by our officers duly authorized in this respect.
