- The section is currently lacking two staff officers, responsible for Intelligence analysis, strategy development, planning and coordination of Consolidated Strategic Opportunities (CSO) & Key Strategic Activities (KSA), and general support to the section head.
- CSOs and KSAs have been adopted by all Framework (FW) Nations as a means to coordinate the collective FW actions globally. - The deliverables will include written plans, analyses, summaries, placemats, PowerPoint products, briefing notes and advice to senior officials.
- Critical requirements and experience: must hold a valid Top Secret security clearance, must have in-depth knowledge and understanding of defence and geopolitical issues.
- Planning experience at the operational and strategic levels, and familiarity with intelligence processes are essential.
- This position requires expert written communication skills.
- An existing understanding of the Military Framework and the CSO development process will be a significant asset to minimize disruption of CAF commitments to the Framework and to minimize time requirements to read into a complex international file.

2. Requirement

1. University degree is mandatory: the candidate must possess an undergraduate degree from a Canadian University at a minimum.
2. The candidate must clearly demonstrate experience in planning at the strategic level on complex defence files involving allies and partners.

- 2.3.3. The contractor will participate in virtual FW meetings as the CAF's representative to this multinational group.
- 2.3.4. The contractor will need to manage classified material with minimal supervision, organize and obtain information from various stakeholders, while incorporating guidance received into final staff products. Deliverables will include briefing notes, executive summaries, strategic-level plans, PowerPoint products, letters, and briefings.
- 2.3.5. The contractor will be responsible for ensuring proper staff duties to include attending meetings and committees, liaising with international and other department officials, gathering information, obtaining approvals, and delivering products often on short timelines.
- 2.3.6. The contractor is required to be available during normal working hours to attend planning events and meetings. In-person attendance will be required given the classified nature of the work. The primary place of duty will be NDHQ Carling, however, work requirements will include attending meetings at other government buildings in the NCR. This workplace is accessible to persons with disabilities.
- 2.3.7. The contractor will contribute to developing strategies in support of sensitive issues and initiatives.
- 2.3.8. Coordinating the preparation of sensitive and complex multinational assessments, including coordinating the whole-of-government updates to a multinational assessment.
- 2.3.9. Conducting, coordinating and managing consultations with various federal departments, agencies as well as allied military and intelligence agencies.
